

an evening benefit concert with Carrie Newcomer

for Centus Counseling, Consulting & Education

Friday, September 24 at 7:30 p.m.
First Plymouth Congregational Church
S. Colorado Blvd. & Hampden Ave.
Denver

Carrie Newcomer is a folk singer and songwriter who tells stories of life and hope through her music. One reviewer said, "Newcomer has a solid singing voice, and delivers her songs in subtle arrangements that leave room for the lyrics to resonate across the consciousness of the listener." Her newest CD, Before and After (on iTunes and previewed on carriewcomer.com), is a true joy!

PURCHASE TICKETS ONLINE at centus.org/tickets

PATRON TICKET $50 includes Meet the Artist reception at 5 pm & preferred seating

IN ADVANCE $20 adult / $10 student

AT THE DOOR $24 adult / $12 student

THE CENTUS MISSION

- To provide a top-tier network of behavioral health services, education, and programs.
- To integrate each client's questions and concerns about the physical, behavioral, and spiritual self.
- To champion hopeful and healthy living.

CONCERT LOCATION

centus.org