Pointers on Ways to Make the Best Use of Your Display Space

1. Make good use of color and photos! Colorful copies, enlargements of colorful resources, and photographs of people engaged in ministry and mission attract attention
2. Keep your displays simple and neat! Too much clutter detracts. Make sure you have plenty of white space between printed items. Foam core and other display materials may be useful.
3. Give your displays a personal touch! People are attracted to displays that are about people.
4. Consider what people you want to attract and what might be of interest to them! Displays are good for creating interest and catching people's attention, but not for communicating detailed information.
