

Church Person of the Year Award

Every year the Rocky Mountain Conference has the opportunity to honor one of our members, clergy or lay, young or old, as the Church Person of the Year. All members of Rocky Mountain Conference churches are eligible to receive this award.

The award is presented for exemplary service and leadership in the wider church; their association, the conference, national setting of the church or mission field. Often people serve beyond the local church in quiet, unassuming ways. This is an opportunity for us to recognize and thank them for their work in God's service, on our behalf.

The nominations will be reviewed by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. Be sure to mail your nominations to the Conference office by May 4, 2007, for consideration.
