

UCC Polity Course

Offered by the Metropolitan Denver Association UCC

Instructor: Rev. Malcolm Himschoot

The course will be held on 5 successive Saturdays,
February 6, 13, 20, 27, and March 6 from 10:00 am -12:00 noon.

The location is yet to be determined

It will be in the Metro Denver area – Malcolm will contact you with directions to the location.

Cost is $200.

The purpose of the course is to provide an introduction to the faith, polity, practice and identity of the United Church of Christ:

- ❖ what it is,
- ❖ how it is organized,
- ❖ how it understands its ministry, mission and ecclesiology.

This not-for-academic-credit course meets for a total of 10 hours.

- ❖ For those not enrolled as degree-seeking students at Iliff School of Theology, successful completion of this course satisfies the Polity half of the minimum Polity/History requirement by the Ministry Council of the Metropolitan Denver Association.
- ❖ This class is also open to lay persons who might want to know more about UCC polity and to ministers who want a refresher/update class.
